

Child Sexual Abuse Awareness and Education Training Values Clarification

Please circle the number that best indicates where you fall on the following scale (there is no wrong answer here!)

- | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|--|
| 1. I am completely comfortable talking about child sexual abuse | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | I am very uncomfortable talking about child sexual abuse |
| 2. I believe child sexual abuse is a personal/family issue, not something to be discussed in school | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | I believe child sexual abuse is a societal problem and should be discussed/taught in school |
| 3. If school personnel suspects a child has been sexually abused, they should mind their own business | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | If school personnel suspects a child has been sexually abused, they should always say something/talk to the child |
| 4. If a person is a survivor of child sexual abuse, they should not teach child sexual abuse prevention to children | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | If a person is a survivor of child sexual abuse, they are most qualified to teach children about child sexual abuse prevention |
| 5. Children who are victims of child sexual abuse can only be helped by trained health professionals | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | Children who are victims of child sexual abuse can be helped by any concerned person |
| 6. Child sexual abuse should always be talked about openly | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | Talking openly about child sexual abuse is never appropriate |

